

I have received notice from the Indiana Attorney's office the FCC is trying to interfere with the Right to Privacy telephone listing. I used to receive on an average of (4) calls per week from solicitor's via telephone. These calls interrupted activities in my home I didn't care for. Please do not interfere with our Indiana Right to Privacy mandate.
F. Clark